

True Multi-Temp™ Climate Mode (or Single-Zone)

Flexibility to store all your varietals at ideal serving temperatures in Multi-Temp mode OR to cellar your wines at a single temperature in Single-Zone mode. In Multi-Temp mode, the cabinet generates a gradient of temperatures from top-to-bottom, allowing you to store different wine styles and varietals at their perfect serving

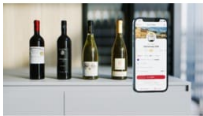

Versatile wine cabinet that can be set as a single zone for cellaring both reds and whites or as multi-temp for serving different styles/varietals at perfect drinking temperatures.
